II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, federal courts may hear cases in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000. In that kind of case, called a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff. Explain how these jurisdictional requirements have been met.

A. The Plaintiff(s)

1. If the plaintiff is an individual

The plaintiff, (name) Christopher Corduleck, is a citizen of the State of (name) North Carolina.

2. If the plaintiff is a corporation

The plaintiff, (name) _____, is incorporated under the laws of the State of (name) _____, and has its principal place of business in the State of (name) _____.

(If more than one plaintiff is named in the complaint, attach an additional page providing the same information for each additional plaintiff.)

B. The Defendant(s)

1. If the defendant is an individual

The defendant, (name) Afore described, Sec I(B)(i), is a citizen of the State of (name) _____. Or is a citizen of (foreign nation) _____.

2. If the defendant is a corporation

The defendant, (name) Afore described, Sec I(B), is incorporated under the laws of the State of (name) (i)-(iv), and has its principal place of business in the State of (name) _____. Or is incorporated under the laws of (foreign nation) _____, and has its principal place of business in (name) _____.

(If more than one defendant is named in the complaint, attach an additional page providing the same information for each additional defendant.)

C. The Amount in Controversy

The amount in controversy—the amount the plaintiff claims the defendant owes or the amount at stake—is more than $75,000, not counting interest and costs of court, because (explain):

Corporate damages are incalculable, currently.

III. Statement of Claim

Write a short and plain statement of the claim. Do not make legal arguments. State as briefly as possible the facts showing that each plaintiff is entitled to the damages or other relief sought. State how each defendant was involved and what each defendant did that caused the plaintiff harm or violated the plaintiff's rights, including the dates and places of that involvement or conduct. If more than one claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional pages if needed.

The plaintiff, (name) Christopher Donald Cordulock, and the defendant, (name) Walmart, made an agreement or contract on (date) Sept. 12, 2024. The agreement or contract was (oral or written) unknowable. Under that agreement or contract, the parties were required to (specify what the agreement or contract required each party to do) see A.D.A.

remunerate each other under fiduciary standards at minimum time cost.

The defendant failed to comply because (specify what the defendant did or failed to do that failed to comply with what the agreement or contract required)

i.m.h.o. "they're ignorant" of the damages they besach.

The plaintiff has complied with the plaintiff's obligations under the contract.

IV. Relief

State briefly and precisely what damages or other relief the plaintiff asks the court to order. Do not make legal arguments. Include any basis for claiming that the wrongs alleged are continuing at the present time. Include the amounts of any actual damages claimed for the acts alleged and the basis for these amounts. Include any punitive or exemplary damages claimed, the amounts, and the reasons you claim you are entitled to actual or punitive money damages.
